

3x600 Mid Range Match Results
Cadillac Sportsman's Club
June 17, 2007

A light turn out of 14 competitors attended the Mid Range match. The overall Match Winner was "Hoosier" Haven Williams with an aggregate score of 585-24X. Haven drove up from Crown Point Indiana "for some practice" and took home the prize money, $35.00 for Overall Match Winner. John Wier was close behind Haven with an aggregate score of 582-20X. Brad Sauve shot an impressive score of 596-35x but Brad forgot his iron sights and match 3 of the aggregate requires any rifle with iron sights, matches one and two are any rifle any sight matches.

Match 1, Any/ Any overall winner paid $5.00 and was John Wier with a 197-11X.

Match 2 Any/ Any overall winner paid $5.00 and was Brad Sauve with a 200-12X.

Match 3 Any/ Irons overall winner paid $5.00 and was John Wier with a 192-5X

We had five competitors in the Marksman class and Ken Orris won Marksman Class matches one, two and three and the aggregate with a 184-5x, 181-4x and a 190-3x for an aggregate total of 555-12x. Match one, two and three class winner paid $4.00 each and Agg. Class winner paid $6.00.

No other class had enough (5) shooters for class awards.

Three competitors shot F Class, including nine year old Jake Sauve who shot an impressive 191-4x in Match 1 using his dad's .308 'F' (TR) rifle off a bipod. F class shot on the official F class target. Chuck Wagner was the high F class shooter with a score of 573-13X.

All the shooters said they appreciated the shade the tents provided over the firing points and most everyone stayed to enjoy the ice cream after the match.

The next 3x600 matches at the Cadillac Sportsman's Club will be July 8th and July 22nd .

There is a Grayling 1000 yard match July 14th and 15th, come on up to Cadillac on July 8th to test out your loads before Grayling, then come on back to Cadillac on the 22nd to rebuild your confidence after shooting at Range 10 at Camp Grayling.
